Alhamdulillah

Assalaam-u-alaikum Dear Community,

As you know, Alhamdulillah we have been able to close on the former ITT Tech Building located at 1905 Haggerty South at the intersection of Palmer and Haggerty Roads. In order to prepare the facility for use, we need the communities support to clean, inventory and make facility ready for use.

Jazak allahu khayran to Allah's blessing and to the whole community for their support in making this happen.

Please contact any Shura member if you have questions and continue to support this blessing from Allah with your Dua's and Donations.

With gratitude,

The Deed that Allah and His Last Messenger love the Most

By
Sh. Ali Suleiman Ali

Every and each Muslim and Muslimah eager to please Allah, so The Almighty Allah will reward him accordingly. Among the deeds that Allah and His Messenger love the most is continued deed.

The spirit of Ramadan is still with us. In the blessed month, we have developed and demonstrated various good deeds. we prayed nawafi prayers, read lots of Qur'an, gave tremendous charity beside Zakah, made lots of Du'a, fed needy, friends and relatives.

Every and each Muslim and Muslimah should maintain some of the good deeds we practiced in Ramadan for the rest of his life. He/her should choose the deed which is easier for him to continue doing until the next Ramadan.

The first generation of Ummah of the Prophet (saw) they always ask the Prophet (saw) about the best beloved deed to Allah. The Messenger of Allah gave them a very comprehensive answer where he says "The most beloved a'amaal (deeds) to Allah is the continued one, even if it is a small."

When Aisha (RA) was asked about what kind of works does the Prophet like the most? She replied (daimoomah) means perpetual deed. Said ibn Sa'id al-ansari commented that when 'A'isha does something she is consistent in doing it.

The Sahaba are the people of action. They ask and act, they translate their belief into action. You find no discrepancy between their actions and belief. Having said this, let me repeat some that have been previously mentioned. Generally speaking, we cannot continue doing all good deeds we developed in the month of Ramada, but we must maintain some of the good deeds developed in Ramadan.

In addition to that we have different inclinations towards doing different action. Some of us are good and love attending masjid, others are good in giving charity, some are good in reading Qur'an while others are good in community works and etc. Hence Allah stated "your efforts (i.e deeds) are of different kinds" We also read in the Qur'an where Allah says to all of us "fastibuqul-khayrat" (so compete in doing good.) May Allah help us to continue doing a'amaal salihat (good deeds) until we meet and hopefully He will be pleased with us.

Outreach Event at MCWS

The MCWS Outreach committee held its annual Iftar for our interfaith friends, MCWS neighbors and city officials.

Held in the newly renovated basement ,the event was attended by guests including City officials, members of the Plymouth-Canton school board, Plymouth Canton ICO friends ,friends from the Hindu temple, the Gurdwara, neighboring Churches, the Canton Public Library and many community members.

The annual iftar provides a chance for friends to break bread together and learn about the traditions of Ramadan.

After the recitation of the Quran , Dr Nadeem Siddiqui ,explained to the guests what Ramadan is all about, its do's and don'ts.

After the Adhan, guests were served dates and iftar snacks, after which maghrib salah was performed in jama'a and the guests were invited to pray or observe.

Dinner was then served.

Our friend Lisa, of the ICO fasted to show her love and support as well. Another friend Rachel mentioned how her daughters were happy to see other faiths fast as well.

The event was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

We would like to thank our volunteers for their support for making the event a success.

Poem from our Youth.

Hajj

Hajj is a pilgrimage that you have to do.
In 9AH it became fard on you.

Hajj is not a vacation.
It's a Muslims' unity demonstration.

Hajj is a journey of the soul and heart.
It's not like a trip to a mart.

If your mind and body is healthy and if you are wealthy; you should go.
It's been going on from long ago.

Hajj helps purify our soul.
In the akhirah it plays a great role.

It helps us look at the world with Allah on our minds.
It reminds us just how much Allah is kind.

During Hajj our patience is tested.
After all the hardship that we detested.

We learn to discipline ourselves to follow Allah's rules.
If we didn't, then we are just fools

MCWS Basement Update

As the year moves forward, we are thankful that we've completed 80% of the basement renovation project. It was already in use for Ramadan and in use for limited activities for the youth and others. The main work remaining is plumbing for bathrooms, garage door install for the closets, accent shiplap wall and lastly dimmable light fixtures.

Thank you for all the support and patience. The target is to completed by end September InshaAllah.
