MCWS helps beautify Michigan Highway

By: Sammy DeMarco

Do you ever see all the trash along the freeway and wonder what can be done to clean it up? There's two solutions: 1) rely on your fellow passengers to never throw another piece of garbage out their window again, but good luck controlling human behavior; or 2) mobilize a group of people to pick it up.

On September 22nd about 3 dozen people from the Muslim Community of Western Suburbs (MCWS) community dispatched into two shifts and picked up several dozen bags of trash and debris along I-275. The effort was in coordination with the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) Adopt-A-Highway program.

This was MCWS' 14th year participating. The volunteer group combed the north and south areas of I-275 between the Michigan Avenue and Ecorse exits. This was the 3rd and final pick up of the season. After one in April and another in July, the group picked up between 70 and 100 total bags this year. Abdoul Razak attends MCWS and helped each time the group went out.

"I was inspired at the chance to do it for Allah, to give back to the community and help keep Canton Muslim community commitments," Razak said.

MCWS community member Sayeed Mallick participated for his first time during the September 22nd pick up.

"It was a good feeling giving back to the community," said Mallick. "As a Muslim, serving God is like serving His people or humanity, like pleasing Allah."

The MDOT Adopt-A-Highway program began in 1990 and currently enlists 2,800 organizations to cover 6,400 miles of Michigan highways. According to the MDOT website, over 1 million bags of trash have been collected thus far.

Many volunteers participate for the sense of community and the humility it brings.

"It's a humbling experience and gave me a chance to do something community-oriented with my brothers," said Razak.

Mallick learned "With a team you can accomplish much more than you can individually."

Imran Jalal was one of this year's organizers. "We live in a beautiful community. For it to remain beautiful we must do our part," said Jalal. "This is not only our civic responsibility, but also keeps us humble," he con-

Fall Fest @ MCWS

As the beautiful Fall leaves begin to wither off the trees, and the air feels a little more chill as we leave the summer days behind, our community was blessed with one last day of warmth and sunshine during our Fall Fest despite the stormy forecast. This year featured a variety of carnival rides, inflatables, a 3-point basketball shoot-out, an assortment of vendors and the one of a kind MCWS biryani. Our volunteers worked tirelessly to put on a day both children and adults always remember; marking a cornerstone event in the book of our

Girls Youth

Sisters youth programming at MCWS has proven to be a great success this year with events geared at personal and spiritual growth with an emphasis on sisterhood. We've seen a dramatic increase in new sisters making it out to our girl's youth committee meetings, Halakah's, Social events, and joint GYC/YBC spiritual lectures. Any and all are welcome to join GYC! We meet every Friday and have an array of fun and spiritual activities planned for all high school girls. We also intend on launching Sunnah Saturday for our high school girls sometime in 2019! Exciting stuff in the horizon and tons to look forward to. We are praying for a fun filled year of growth!
